REGARDING BACKGROUND CONSUMER REPORTS
(Important: Please read carefully before signing.)

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Engility Corporation may conduct a background investigation as part of its screening and hiring process. Thus, you may be the subject of a “consumer report” and/or an “investigative consumer report” which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living. These reports may contain information regarding your credit history, credit header data, criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records (“driving records”), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks. The primary objective of any investigation will be to verify information you provided on your application in connection with your application for employment or continued employment with the company. A consumer report and/or an investigative consumer report may be obtained at any time during the application process or during your employment with the company, to the extent permitted by law. If you submit a timely written request to our personnel department, we will provide you with the name, address and phone number of the consumer reporting agency and the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report (if one is ordered). Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for employment is an investigation into your education and/or employment history conducted by Orange Tree Employment Screening, or another outside organization.

SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FCRA

The FCRA (Fair Credit Reporting Act) requires that we inform you that a background investigation may be conducted as part of the screening and hiring process. In the course of this screening process before any adverse action is taken, you will be provided a copy of the report and a comprehensive summary of your rights under the FCRA, as well as additional information on your rights under the law.
